

1. Roll your clay to 7mm thick. Cut one of each of the pieces, but 2 of the loops.

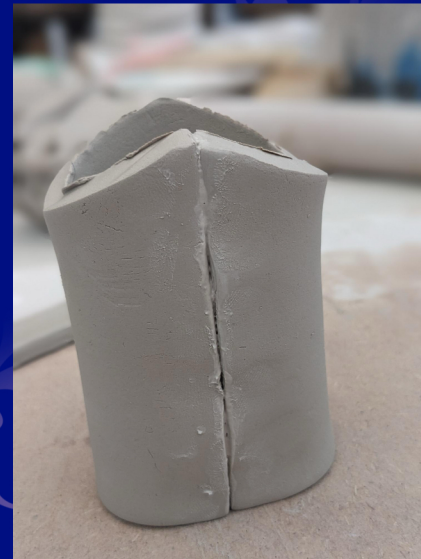

2. Score and slip the heel onto the underside of the sole

3. Blend the seam all the way round

4. Stand up the boot piece and score and slip the two straight edges

5. Join the two edges together and then blend a sausage of clay over the join on the outside, and on the inside

