

6. Blend thoroughly so you can't see the join

7. score and slip the flat edge of the boot and where it's going on the sole

8. attach the boot to the sole like this

9. Smooth around the seam so you can't see the join

10. add an air hole at the front of the boot

11. squeeze the boot into shape. Check how it looks from all angles